FORTHCOMING CONGRESSES

15th British Congress, Chester, Whitsuntide, 6—10 June, 1924.—Applications for sectional meetings should be sent in not later than the 30th April. Owing to pressure of services at the Cathedral the Congress service will be held at the private chapel of the Bishop, in the "Old Palace." Arrangements will be made to view the Cathedral. Will all able to help in the social meetings by musical items, recitations, etc., kindly communicate with the Secretary, Miss Agnes Hogg, 25 Bradford Street, Handbridge, Chester.

XVI Universal Congress, Vienna, 6—14 August, 1924.—Over 2000 members were enrolled by end of March. All things point to a record gathering. The local Committee anticipate no difficulty in reserving accommodation. The cost of board and lodging is estimated to vary from 2 or 3 up to 10 swiss francs a day, according to the degree of luxury required. No Esperantist who can afford to attend can afford to be absent. Details of caravans appear in April International Language. Write to Esperanto-Kongreso, Vienna, for illustrated prospectus, enclosing £1 for Congress Ticket.

The time-limit for joining the Congress at this minimum subscription has been extended from 31 March to 31 May. Those intending to be present should show their appreciation of this extension by joining early.

Venu Dresdenon! Koran Bonvenon!—The local Group invite Congress Members on their way to Vienna to break their journey in Dresden. What is intended is not to arrange a wearisome "Antaŭkongreso" in hot crowded rooms, but to give opportunities for rest and conversation, and for conducted visits to local beauty-spots. A special attraction will be the great Exhibition of German Textile Industries. If those taking advantage of these arrangements will communicate beforehand with J. Karech, Struvestrasse 40, Dresden, this will greatly help the local Committee.

IX Italian Esperanto Congress, Turin, 3—5 August, 1924.—All visiting the Vienna Congress are invited to attend this Antaŭkongreso also. Congress Ticket, 3/-. Special railway terms are granted from Modane onwards. Board and lodging from 5/- a day upwards. Many visitors are expected from other lands. Excursions will be arranged. Information as to routes, rebates, and all arrangements, from Mario Muretti, 31 Via Berthollet, Torino (6), Italy.

French Esperanto Congress, Strasbourg, Whitsun, 1924.—Subscription 8 fr., Members unable to attend, 4 fr. 100 Congress Stamps, 2 fr. Congress Organ: "La Stelo." Address: A. Schwartz, 15 rue du Marechal Foch, Strasbourg.

Skota Kongreso.—La XIX Skota Kongreso okazos 13—15 Junio en Burntisland, vizitinda urbo ĉe la suda marbordo de Fife. Prezidos S-ro James Rodger, B.A. Krom la kutimaj kunvenoj oni aranĝos vizitojn al lokaj interesaroj. Tial, ke la regiono estas geologie unu el la plej interesaj en Britujo, oni esperas aranĝi ekskurson geologian. Sek., F-ino E. Anderson, Darroch, Burntisland.

Lancashire and Cheshire Federation.—Pro la fakto, ke la Federacio invitis la Britan Kongreson al Chester, oni aranĝos Federacian Konferencon dum la Kongreso. La Federacia Komitato partoprenas la respondecon por la sukceso de la Kongreso, kaj opinias, ke estos la devo de ĉiu Federaciano, kiu tion povos, iri Ĉestron por sukcesigi la aferon.

South Eastern Federation.—Conference in Brighton, on Easter Monday, Apr. 21. Details from B. Long, 21 Great Russell Street, W.C. 1.

KRONIKO GRUPA KAJ KURSA.

Group-list.—Please keep for reference the list inset in this issue, as the Group-list cannot now appear so frequently as formerly.

Catford.—Entuziasma lernantaro kunvenas ĉiujare je 3.0 ĉe Co-operative Stores, Brownhill Rd. Detalojn de la instruistino, F-ino V. F. Hazle, 23 Station Road, Bromley.

Chester.—Je 20 Marto Prof. W. E. Collinson paroladis pri "La Eduka valoro de Internacia Lingvo." Prezidis la Direktoro de Edukado por Cheshire (S-ro F. F. Potter).

Edinburgh.—Programo lastmonata: kvinminutaj legaĵoj, Paroladoj pri U.E.A., Influo de la Penca Poŝto, La Skribarto, Teatraĵeto, Azenoj, La Viena Kongreso. 9 kandidatoj sin prezentis por la elementa ekzameno, kaj 6 por la supera. Presita programo montras, ke lunde okazas Lega kaj Parola Rondo; marde Elementa Kurso; merkrede la Grupo; ĵaŭde Supera Kurso; vendrede Konsilantaro; sabate Socia Rondo kaj Vagada Klubo. (Kial ne dimanĉe Esperanta Diservo?) Aliaj grupoj imitu!

Enfield.—Aldone al la kursoj de F-ino Rose ĉe la loka grupo, okazis du kursoj sub S-ro D. Mason, Sekretario de la Eduka Komitato de Enfield Highway Co-operative Society. La lernantoj raportas, ke S-ro Mason estas entuziasma kaj lerta instruisto, kiu faras la lernon facila kaj interesa. Nova kurso malfermiĝos 7 Aprilo. Detalojn de S-ro Mason, Co-operative Hall, Enfield Highway.

Leicester Esperantista Bicikla Klubo volonte rajdus ĝis 20 mejloj sabate, aŭ ĝis 40 mejloj dimanĉe, por renkonti aliajn grupojn aŭ izolajn Esperantistojn. F. Hancock, 5 Lancashire St., Leicester.

Sidcot Friend's School, Winscombe, Somerset. Dudek knaboj formis inter si Esperantan grupon por studi la liugvon. Adresu ĉe D. Jefferies.

Torquay.—Je la 10a de Marto S-ro W. R. Wood parolis en Roslin Hall pri "Impressions of an International Esperanto Congress," kaj je la 24a al la Ko-operativa Gildo pri "The foundation and early history of Esperanto." Ambaŭ parolojn ilustris lumbildoj.

Laboristaj Kolegioj kaj Esperanto. Esperanto estas instruata ĉe la jenaj Laboristaj Kolegioj: Edinburgh (13 Abercrombie Place), merkredon, 7.30; Glasgow (149A North St.), merkredon, 7.30; Manchester (32A Dale St.), merkredon, 8.0; Newcastle (Socialist Rooms), mardon, 7.0.

KRONIKO FAKA

Skolta Esperantista Ligo havis bonan kunvenon en Londono je 28 Marto. Kasisto D. H. Davis raportis, ke la bilanco montras kontentigan saldon. Oni diskutis aranĝojn por vigla antaŭeniro en baldaŭa estonteco.

Societo de Amikoj.—22 Birminghamaj Membroj de Friends' Esperanto Society sendis al cent lokaj Amikoj cirkuleran leteron kun specimena ekz. de International Language. La letero diras: "We consider it to be deplorable that intelligent members of the same great human family should be dumb when they meet one another . . . To remove this language difficulty is the aim of the F.E.S." Minimuma Kotizo al F.E.S. 1/-. Sek., Edward Wright, 59 Broughton Rd., Handsworth.

Henri van Etten nun estas Sekretario de la Pariza Grupo de la Societo de Amikoj. Li laboras ĉe 20 Avenue Victoria, Paris I, kaj bonvenigus Esperantistan vizitanton.

Internacia Asocio de l' Esperantistaj Stenografistoj. Organ: Internacia Stenografisto. At a meeting in Paris je 9 Marto Officers were elected and other business done. Among 15 Councillors balloted from 10 countries are Mr. Bredall of London and Mr. Warden of Edinburgh. Information from 49 Avenue de Verdun, Issy-les-Moulineaux (Seine), France.

Church Esperanto League.—Eklezia Revuo, though temporarily suspended, will probably reappear in a new form. Meantime members receive a News Bulletin. Good work has been done in the Press. Various International Organisations have been approached. Among new members are several Russian clergy. The Book of Common Prayer is ready for publication, but funds are lacking. By rigid economy the debit balance has been reduced from £84 to £65. Mr. J. H. Fitton has issued an appeal for help to wipe out this deficit without further delay, and the Secretary, Rev. A. J. Ashley, Farnley Tyas Vicarage, Nr. Huddersfield, will personally double whatever is received in response to this appeal.

NEKROLOGO.

Je la 6a de Marto forpasis Pastro J. A. Beard en Melksham, kie li estis pastro de la Kongregacia Preĝejo de 1880 ĝis 1909. Pastro Beard dufoje predikis ĉe la Diservo Esperantista en Londono. Li aliĝis al la B.E.A. en 1915, sed estis Esperantisto longe antaŭ tiu jaro.

 London Station will broadcast a talk in Esperanto on the work of the B.B.C.

VARIOUS.

Do not write indignation letters to the Office when your local paper prints something unintelligent about Esperanto. Instead of bombarding the Secretary of the B.E.A., write to the Editor of the paper concerned.
 That is your opportunity.

A model member in this respect is Mark Starr, letters by whom continually appear in various magazines. Our cuttings book shows that a few other members also do fine work in this way. Wood of Torquay, for example.
 Why not you? There is plenty to write about. "Lift" a few sentences from any of the B.E.A. leaflets.

Have you seen to it that your local bookseller stocks and displays International Language? Do you encourage him by buying copies and sending customers?

Envelopes, urges Mr. C. G. S. Menteth, should be addressed in printed characters to ensure legibility. If advertisers in our Fako de Korespondo would but follow this advice!

Up-to-date doctors subscribe to Internacia Medicina
Revuo, subscription 10/-, from D-ro K. Mezei, 4 Terez-Korut, Budapest VI, Hungary.

Wellesley College (U.S.A.) carried out a scientific investigation of the ease with which Esperanto may be learned. A full report appears in International Language for March.

The International Scientific Congress, opened in Lyons on 1 March under the presidency of the Mayor, passed a Resolution in favour of Esperanto for world commerce.

The Save the Children Fund announce a Summer School in Geneva. English students leave London 2
 Aug., and return 16 Aug. or later. Ten Guineas covers 2nd class fare, two weeks' board and lodging, and many attractions, including eight lessons in Esperanto by Prof.
 Bovet. Particulars from 42 Langham St., London, W.1.

The British Peace Award offer 37 prizes amounting to £2,000 for answers received before 28 June to the question "How can Peace and Prosperity be restored in Great Britain and in Europe through International Co-operation?"
 All British citizens are eligible. Send stamped addressed envelope for details to 13 John St., W.C. 2.
 Esperantists, get busy! Remember the B.E.A. when you receive your prize!

The International Labour Office of the League of Nations in Geneva issues a periodical Bulletin of information in Esperanto on industrial matters, under the title Informservo de la Internacia Labora Oficejo.

New Zealand Labour Party, in their Sixth Annual Conference, 1923, included in their Platform under heading 4 (Education) the following: "The universal language—Esperanto—to be included in the curriculum for all State Schools."

Sussex County Herald, 4 Pevensey Road, Eastbourne, ĉiusemajne eldonas "Esperanto Corner" Esperante kaj angle. Gratulon kaj dankon.

Isolated Students. Write to the Secretary of the B.E.A. for particulars of Elementary, Advanced, and Translation Courses of Instruction by Correspondence.
 An experienced and competent Panel of Instructors is waiting to explain to you just those points which have always fogged you, and to give you candid criticism of your Esperanto style.

Propaganda Committee, B.E.A. Report of work,
Jan.—Mar., 1924. Meetings addressed, 28. Attendance,
 763. Sales, £6:18:5. Circulars to Press and others,
 555. New Classes formed, 4.

TWO GOOD OFFERS.

Mr. J. T. Holmes, Roundwood Grange, Baildon, Shipley, has a stock of Harrogate picture postcards with Esperanto text. Any school teacher may have a free supply for his class by sending a shilling for postage, stating how many in the class.

Laborista Esperanto Grupo, 922 Casella Postale, Genova, Italy, has printed in Esperanto 10,000 copies of the famous book by J. Mazzini "Devoj de la Homo," and will send a free copy to any Esperantist asking for it; also to any town library. Addresses of the latter are asked for. A small gift by those who can afford it towards postal expenses of this distribution would be appreciated, but nothing is asked beyond a request for the book and a card of acknowledgement (the latter for propaganda).
